RED CROSS AID FOR JAPANESE

HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS FACE STARVATION CAUSED BY CATASTROPHES

EARTHQUAKE AND CROP FAILURE

Late Dispatches Multiply Horror and Suffering in Valcano's Wake—President Wilson Calls for Funds

Washington.—President Wilson, as president of the Red Cross, has issued an appeal to the American people for funds to assist the people of Japan, who are suffering not only from the earthquake but from the failure of crops.

Red Cross headquarters announce from this city that an appeal had been sent out to all state chapters, asking local chapters to gather the funds.

Late dispatches from the stricken island further bear out the early tales of heavy life loss. Thirty refugees have been taken off the island of Nakura. With their rescue no living things remain, so far as known, on the island.

Their escape was remarkable. The rescue was effected by a boat's crew from the Japanese flagship. As soon as the cruiser squadron arrived there crews were sent out to circle the island.

All was desolation. No sign of human beings was seen until late in the day, when an officer in one of the launches noticed something being waved in the air at a short distance. A detachment of men, heavily bundled to protect them from the heat, was landed. After a struggle they succeeded in making their way through the soft, warm ashes, breast high, until they reached a great rock.

Sheltered behind the rock they found thirty people still living, but coated with thick dust and weakened by starvation and thirst.

Among the rescued was a schoolmaster who had borne with him from his schoolhouse the portrait of the emperor.

Saved by Cave
The refugees had hidden in a great cave near the shore until the rain of ashes was over.

Officers of the cruiser squadron sent by the Japanese government have returned to the city. All their and are rapidly restoring a semblance of order.

Many of the people of Kagoshima have returned to the city. All their houses were in ruins and the returning refugees are compelled to camp in the open. Warships have brought a large stock of food and supplies.

Property loss at Kagoshima is immense. The clearing away of ashes and debris has not gone far enough to allow even an approximate estimate as to the loss of life.

Ready Response

Colonel Robert M. Thompson, chairman of the executive committee of the Navy League of America, started a subscription with $1,250 to which other members of the league and officers of the navy added.

The staff of the Kagoshima observatory throughout the eruptions stayed at their posts, facing extermination. They recorded each phase of the shock although almost suffocated by poisonous gases.

Near Chrysin Island, a severe submarine upheaval shook the vessel. The captain endeavored to call at Aburatsubo, on the island of Kikushu, but was unable to advance without danger.

Rescues 1588 Refugees

Kobe.—The Ryukyu Maru, a passenger steamer, has arrived after rescuing 158 inhabitants of the village of Yumara, on the island of Sakura Jima. All residents of another village were found to have been rescued with the exception of one who was taken aboard.

The captain of the steamer witnessed the eruption of the volcano. Flames leaped from the ground, setting the villages on fire. While the steamer lay off shore ashes to the depth of a foot fell on her decks. On the way to Kobe there was a pall of ashes like a dense fog.

Hundreds of bodies of human beings and animals are seen floating down stream.

Rivers Turn Yellow

Miyazaki.—The situation here is improved, but there are still frequent earthquakes and terrific thunder storms. The rain has purified the atmosphere. Rivers have turned yellow and are covered with dead fish.

Desolate Island

Kagoshima.—Houses on the island of Sakura that were left standing are enveloped in lava and resemble gigantic wasps. Fugitives who have returned are terrified and refuse to enter their homes except to make a hurried search for valuables.

The western part of the island is coated thickly with melted sulphur. The southern part is covered by a deposit of ashes. The condition of the central part is obscured by the heavy smoke.

MRS. BIRD S. MUIRE

Mrs. Muir, wife of the Oklahoma congressman, has begun the study of law in George Washington university at Washington, and intends to complete the course. Before her marriage she was Miss Ruby Ridgway of Kansas City.

TITANIC'S CASE IS CONSIDERED

SUPREME COURT HEARS CELEBRATED CONTROVERSY.

Approximately $13,000,000 Claims Hinge On Decision of Judges, As to What Law Applies.

Washington.—Compensation for the stupendous loss of life and property when the liner Titanic went to the bottom of the ocean is up for consideration by the supreme court. On the outcome of the argument of some of America's leading admiralty lawyers will depend whether the Oceanic Steam Navigation Company, owners of the Titanic, must face the payment of about $13,000,000 claims or whether its liability is to be limited to some $90,000.

Intricate questions of law which have perplexed legal minds of the United States and Great Britain ever since the Titanic's maiden voyage was ended by the iceberg's fatal blow and which have not yet been decided by the British courts will be up for decision.

The steamship company seeks to have the American court hold the admiralty laws and rules of the United States applicable to the case and thereby limit the liabilities of the company to the salvage from the wreck and the passenger and freight money received on the voyage, amounting in all to about $90,000.

Claimants seeking to recover for loss of lives, baggage and freight have sent almost a score of lawyers to the supreme court with briefs in their behalf.

Claimants contend that the American law does not apply, because the disaster occurred on the high seas. Furthermore, it is contended that the American law contemplates limitation of liability only when the disaster results from the collision of two vessels and not when it occurs from striking an iceberg. Some of the lawyers also argue that British law fixes the liability of the owner because the Titanic carried the British flag.

Should the British law be held applicable and should it be found that the disaster occurred without the owners' fault or privity, the damages recoverable by the claimants under British law, it is said, would be about $3,000,000. Should it be held the disaster occurred through the owner's fault or privity, it will be liable for full damages, now claimed to be about $13,000,000.

REFUGEES A SERIOUS PROBLEM

Army On the Border Has Many Mexicans to Care For.

Washington.—All the Mexican federal soldiers now in the custody of the United States border patrol forces at Presidio, Texas, will be transferred to Fort Bliss and interned there indefinitely. Secretary Garrison ordered the transfer with permission to the refugee women and children to accompany the soldiers if they desire.

About three thousand Mexicans and officers fled across the Rio Grande when the victorious constitutionalists entered Ojinaga, and with them, besides many women and children, are some 100 civilian refugees. The civilians are not prisoners and will be allowed to go wherever they wish, though those desiring to remain in American territory will have to satisfy the immigration officers.

With Presidio sixty miles from the nearest railroad, it will be a difficult undertaking to get the army of prisoners to its haven.

Ferd Has a New Affinity.

Christiana.—The Norwegian authorities received from the French tribunal a demand for the extradition of Ferdinand Pinney Earle, the American artist, and Miss Charlotte Herman, charged with kidnapping Earle's 15-year-old son from a school in France. It is understood the extradition will be granted. The American minister, Albert H. Schedeman, said the American government would not oppose extradition, but would ask for a postponement for Miss Herman.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Beautify Your Hair! Make It Soft, Fluffy and Luxuriant—Try the Moist Cloth.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable luster, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any store and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all. Adv.

Park for Millionaires.

Plans for the transformation of an enormous cost of the 14,000-acre Palos Verdes ranch, overlooking Los Angeles harbor and the Catalina channel, into one of the most magnificent residential parks in the nation for American millionaires, are being made. Frank A. Vanderlip of the National City bank of New York and his associates recently purchased the tract for $1,750,000 for this purpose. The plans as they now stand promise to involve an expenditure of $5,000,000.

MOTHER! LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE

If cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs"

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Adv.

Easy Money.

"You can't fool all the people all the time," announced the investigator. "I know it," replied the trust magnate. "There is plenty of profit in fooling half of them half the time."

Extravagance.

Hicks—Is it true, then, that you're living beyond your station?
Wicks—Yes; two miles.

No thoughtful person uses liquid blue. It's a pinch of blue in a large bottle of water. Ask for Red Cross Ball Blue. Adv.

Women EverywherePraise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Women from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from all sections of this great country, no city so large, no village so small but that some woman has written words of thanks for health restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. No woman who is suffering from the ills peculiar to her sex should rest until she has given this famous remedy a trial. Is it not reasonable to believe that what it did for these women it will do for any sick woman?

Wonderful Case of Mrs. Stephenson, on the Pacific Coast.

INDEPENDENCE, OREGON.—"I was sick with what four doctors called Nervous Prostration, was treated by them for several years, would be better for a while then back in the old way again. I had palpitation of the heart very bad, fainting spells, and was so nervous that a spoon dropping to the floor would nearly kill me, could not lift the lightest weight without making me sick; in fact was about as sick and miserable as a person could be. I saw your medicines advertised and thought I would try them, and am so thankful I did for they helped me at once. I took about a dozen bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and also used the Sanative Wash. Since then I have used them whenever I felt sick. Your remedies are the only doctor I employ. You are at liberty to publish this letter."—Mrs. W. STEPHENSON, Independence, Oregon.

A Grateful Atlantic Coast Woman.

HONOLULU, ME.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and was fat and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Maine.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs. It has restored so many suffering women to health. Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
